Meet the Director: Hamilton Tescarollo

Since his debut with the São Paulo State Symphony Orchestra (OSESP), Hamilton Tescarollo has performed both as a solo and collaborative pianist in the United States, Canada, Europe, and South America. Recent concert engagements have taken him to venues in Argentina, Austria, Brazil, France, Germany, Hungary, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, and a number of US states, including a performance of George Gershwin’s Rhapsody in Blue at Carnegie Hall’s Isaac Stern Auditorium. Also an active recording artist, he has several published CDs to his credit.

A dedicated teacher, he recently received the Indiana Music Teachers Association “Teacher of the Year” award. His students have been prizewinners of many piano contests, including the Phoenix Symphony Guild Concerto Competition, Indianapolis Symphony Young Musicians Competition, Sewanee Summer Music Center Concerto Competition, Indiana Hoosier Auditions, and MTNA Competitions, among others. They also have been awarded numerous scholarships and grants to attend summer programs and pursue graduate study.

Tescarollo currently serves as Associate Professor of Music and Director of Keyboard Studies at Indiana University – Purdue University Fort Wayne, where he teaches piano and piano-related courses and coordinates the keyboard area. Previously, he has held teaching positions at Faculdade Santa Marcelina, the Municipal School of Music of São Paulo, and Arizona State University. He is the founder and director of the IPFW Gene Marcus Piano Camp & Festival and the IPFW Gene Marcus Piano Competition. In addition, he regularly presents piano masterclasses both nationally and internationally, and is a frequent lecturer and competition adjudicator.

Dr. Tescarollo holds Piano Performance degrees from Arizona State University (D.M.A. and M.M.), Faculdade Santa Marcelina (B.M.), and Escola Municipal de Música de São Paulo (Diploma). His main teachers were Gilberto Tinetti and Caio Pagano.

June 11–16, 2017
For Young Pianists in Grades 7-12

Dr. Hamilton Tescarollo, Camp Director

A week-long immersion in the art of piano playing

For info and registration form and to view all of our summer camps, visit ipfw.edu/caa

COMMUNITY ARTS ACADEMY
INDIANA UNIVERSITY–PURDUE UNIVERSITY FORT WAYNE
COLLEGE OF VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS

June 11–16, 2017
For Young Pianists in Grades 7-12

Dr. Hamilton Tescarollo, Camp Director

A week-long immersion in the art of piano playing

For info and registration form and to view all of our summer camps, visit ipfw.edu/caa

COMMUNITY ARTS ACADEMY
INDIANA UNIVERSITY–PURDUE UNIVERSITY FORT WAYNE
COLLEGE OF VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS
Open to intermediate through advanced pianists in grades 7-12 (as of spring 2017) who are interested in improving their playing and performance

Masterclass for camp participants by Dr. Kevin Ayesh, the head of the Music Department at Blue Ridge Community College in Flat Rock, N. Carolina

Individual and group lessons, ensemble and guided practice sessions

Daily recitals by guest artists and faculty, as well as camp participants

Residential and commuter options

Applications from students residing anywhere in the US or abroad are accepted

Camp scholarships are available

For questions, contact
Melinda Haines, Director
Community Arts Academy
260-481-6059 or hainesmd@ipfw.edu

Registration Deadline:
May 26, 2017
or as long as space remains

Priority Scholarship Deadline:
May 5, 2017

Held in the
IPFW Rhinehart Music Center

Residential and Commuter Camp Options $379–$499

Scholarships Available!

Residential Campers Will Stay in IPFW Student Housing