IPFW Department of Fine Arts Scholarships
For New and Returning Students
Portfolio Reviews: October 14, 2016 – March 10, 2017

The Department of Fine Arts at IPFW encompasses the following areas and offers excellent facilities for students to work in:

- Art Education
- Ceramics
- Drawing
- Metalsmithing
- Painting
- Printmaking
- Sculpture

We offer a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree, a Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.) degree, and a Bachelor of Arts in Art Education (B.A. Art Education) degree as well as a Minor in Art History.

- Incoming students eligible for generous scholarships
- Scholarships awards offered annually to continuing students in the Department of Fine Arts
- When combined with an internationally recognized Indiana University degree, it is hard to imagine a more economical, high profile degree offered anywhere!

Digital portfolio application instructions:

- Please send the images in a PowerPoint presentation via a Dropbox link. Each slide should include an image and the following information for each piece: the title, media, and size.

- Create a title page in the PowerPoint presentation with the student’s name, high school (if a new student), email address, phone number, and desired major area of concentration.

- Please include a minimum of twelve and up to 20 works.

- Email PowerPoints via a Dropbox link with completed application form to finearts@ipfw.edu

- The email applications will be accepted from October 14, 2016, through March 10, 2017. Award announcements will be made soon after the March 10th deadline.

Student work should include as broad a spectrum as possible to allow for the most accurate judgment of artistic abilities. New students should use the advice of their high school teachers when selecting work for the portfolio. More information may be found at www.ipfw.edu/fine-arts/ - see, “Applying for Scholarships” link.
