DEADLINE:
Audition recordings and application must be completed online by:
MONDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2017
Apply and upload recordings online at:
ipfw.edu/honor-band

Rehearsals at the beautiful IPFW Rhinehart Music Center in the Auer Performance Hall. Admission to the final concert for family and friends is FREE.

HIGH SCHOOL GUEST CONDUCTOR
Dr. Damon Talley serves as director of bands and Paula G. Manship associate professor of music at Louisiana State University School of Music, where he oversees all aspects of the Band Department, conducts the Wind Ensemble and teaches graduate conducting. Prior to his appointment at LSU, he held the position of Director of Bands at Shenandoah Conservatory. While at Shenandoah, he established the Mid-Atlantic Invitational for high school students as well as the summer Conducting Symposium. As an avid supporter of new music for the wind medium, Talley has conducted numerous world premier performances and commissioned composers to write for the wind band. Dr. Talley earned a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Wind Conducting from The University of Texas and a Master of Music degree in Wind Conducting from the University of Michigan.

MIDDLE SCHOOL GUEST CONDUCTOR
Dr. Mary Ellen Cavitt is Professor of Music Education and Associate Dean in the College of Fine Arts and Communication at Texas State University where she recently received the Texas State University Alumni Teaching Award of Honor, Everett Swinney Faculty Senate Teaching Award, Presidential Awards of Distinction in Service and Teaching, and the College Achievement Award for Excellence in Scholarly/Creative Activity. Dr. Cavitt received Bachelor and Master degrees in horn performance from The Juilliard School and Ph.D. in music education from The University of Texas at Austin. She has served as Director of Graduate Studies in Music and Associate Director of the School of Music at Texas State University. Dr. Cavitt’s teaching responsibilities at Texas State University include instrumental techniques, educational methods, graduate music education courses and supervision of student teachers.