3MT Workshop #3: “Think on Your Feet”

The 3MT contest is open to BOTH Thesis and Non-thesis Graduate Students and Undergraduates with Senior Projects.

Intimidated by presenting in front of people?

Nervous when you’re asked a question on the spot?

This workshop focuses on how to make you more comfortable when presenting and how to express your thoughts and ideas in the moment. Erik Sternberger, improviser, actor, writer, and animator from Columbus, Ohio will guide you.

You do not have to participate in the 3 Minute Thesis Contest to attend this workshop.

Join us on Saturday, November 12th from 1-3pm in NEFF 101
