Exelis, Inc. Tuition Incentive
A tuition incentive in specific courses is being offered by Exelis Inc. for the Spring Semester 2016.

To Qualify, IPFW/ETCS students:

- Must be completing a Baccalaureate degree on a full-time basis
- Must be sophomore standing or above
- Must have an overall GPA of 3.0 or greater in on the following majors and remain in one of these majors:
  - Computer Engineering
  - Computer Science
  - Electrical Engineering
  - Mechanical Engineering
  - Or equivalent Engineering Technology disciplines
- Must be a US Citizen

To Apply, student must register for the Spring 2016 Semester for one or two of three-credit-hour courses listed below (cannot take more than two):

Potential courses focusing on international studies and culture, public speaking and/or technical writing:

INTL 1200: Introduction to International Studies: Emerging Global Visions
COM 30300: Intercultural Communication
ENG W234: Technical Report Writing
ENG W421: Technical Writing Projects
ANTH E105: Culture and Society
HIST H232: The World in the 20th Century
OLS 25200: Human Relations in Organizations
OLS 45400: Gender and Diversity in Management
- All of these courses can satisfy General Education requirements or writing courses that are required in some majors.
- All of these courses are offered in the spring of 2016.

Student must successfully complete course(s) with a B or above) to receive the tuition incentive.

Student is responsible for making sure the course(s) are approved courses for their degree.