Mark your calendar! Purdue North Central, Purdue Calumet, Michiana Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), Interns for Indiana, and Indiana University—Purdue University Fort Wayne (IPFW) are teaming up to host a Total Internship Management Workshop on Friday, July 25. The event will be held on Purdue North Central's campus in the Library-Student-Faculty Building, Room 144, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. CST.

This workshop is open to community businesses that are interested in learning how to build an effective internship program. Topics include:

- Understanding and communicating with the millennial generation
- Planning for the best time of year to host interns
- Compensation and benefits
- Learning how to structure internship assignments, projects, and tasks

Content will be provided by Intern Bridge, Inc., a leading national college recruiting consulting and research firm. Intern Bridge has earned a high level of satisfaction from professionals who have participated its live programs. Kelly Brown, human resources coordinator for Mohawk Flooring, said, “The workshop was extremely beneficial to my organization, not only because of the wealth of internship information and resources, but also for the networking and connecting the class provided. It was helpful to meet individuals form other organizations who were in the same boat as I was. Dr. Shindell is an exceptional speaker and communicator with a wealth of knowledge to share on this topic!”

Those who plan to attend are encouraged to register online before the day of the event. The event is approved for six hours of Human Resource Certification Institute credits. Breakfast, lunch, and snacks will be provided. Previous attendees at this workshop include Marvel, Johnson & Johnson, XEROX, and Disney.
