The following students will be presenting their Honors Capstone projects:

Evan Frauhiger (History)
Faculty Mentor: Dr. Christine Erickson (History)
“The Legacy of the Nuremberg Trials: An International Double Standard”

Taylor Goodpaster (CSD)
Faculty Mentor: Dr. Pamela Reese (CSD)
“Oral Miscues in Struggling Readers”

Amanda Stoffer (Biology)
Faculty Mentor: Dr. George Mourad (Biology)
“Genetic and Biochemical Characterization of the Putative Xanthine and Uric Acid Transporters from the Bacterial Causative Agent Paenibacillus larvae of the American Foulbrood disease (AFB) in Honey Bee”

Hallel Paraiso (Biology)
Faculty Mentor: Dr. Peng Jing (Chemistry)
“A Novel Integration Method For Inserting Portal Proteins Into Planar Bilayer Membranes”

Amity Pauley (WOST/COMM)
Faculty Mentor: Dr. Michelle Kelsey Kearl (COMM)
“Terroir of Two Places: Exploring Potentials and Limitations for Feminist Outcomes in French and US Food Movements”

Friday, April 10, 2015
Honors Center (2nd floor, Helmke Library)
Lunch: 11:30 - Noon (RSVP required)
Presentations: Noon - 3:15 PM
Reception: Immediately Following (RSVP required)
Scan here to RSVP or use the link below

Please RSVP at: https://purdue.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_7Oi9g0aOrVw1rGB