Common Types of Financial Aid at IPFW:

Complete the FAFSA yearly

Federal / Indiana State Grants:  Do not require repayment

- Federal Pell Grant
- Federal SEOG
- Frank O’Bannon Grant (formerly State Higher Education Award (HEA))
- State Higher Education Award Part Time Grant
- 21st Century Scholars
- Indiana National Guard Supplemental Grant
- Child of Veteran or Public Safety Officer (CVO)

For more detailed information on these awards please visit the following link:
http://studentaid.ed.gov/
http://www.in.gov/sfa/  (Click on State Financial Aid, located under the Learn About section on the left side of the page.)

Loans:  Require repayment
All loans must be accepted and have a signed Master Promissory Note completed. Loans denoted with an asterisk also require Entrance Counseling, which must also be completed before any aid is disbursed.

- Federal Direct Stafford Subsidized & Unsubsidized Loans*
- Federal Direct Parent Loan (PLUS)
- Federal Direct Graduate PLUS (GPLUS)*
- Private/Alternative Loans

For more detailed information on these awards please visit the following links:
https://studentloans.gov

Federal Work-Study Program:  Do not require repayment
- Need-based work program that allows you to find employment to earn money for college expenses. Students are paid on a bi-weekly basis and are responsible to find an approved job.

For more detailed information on these awards please visit the following link:  http://www.ipfw.edu/work-study/

Scholarships:  Do not require repayment
Students are responsible for maintaining and understanding the specific requirements for initial and continued receipt of scholarship funding.

- Chancellor’s Awards
- Chapman Scholars
- Scholarships by Academic major
- Outside Scholarships
- Military & Veteran Scholarships
- State of Indiana Scholarships
- Other IPFW Scholarships
- IPFW Scholarship Application

For more detailed information on these awards, please visit the following link:
http://www.ipfw.edu/offices/financial-aid/types/scholarships.html

UPDATED:  November 28, 2016